

LIPARI

Area: 89.72 km²

Altitude: 602 m s.l.m.

Lipari was created by a succession of four volcanic movements. The last eruptions occurred in the fifth century CE. The volcanoes are considered active, and steaming fumaroles may still be seen. The island is covered with pumice and obsidian

